

et

ECONOMICS TODAY

Frequency

Economics Today is published four times during the academic year in September, November, January and March.

Price

Individuals and institutions are invited to subscribe at a price of only £22.95 per annum. Once a subscription has been taken out, further subscriptions for individual students will cost only £10.95 as part of a bulk mailing to the same address. A free copy will be sent for every 20 copies ordered.

NO
PRICE INCREASE

Order Form

The price of an annual subscription to Economics Today (Volume 25) 2017-2018

Individual or institutional subscriptions	£22.95
Further subscriptions as part of bulk mailing	£10.95

A free copy will be sent for every 20 copies ordered.

Please send me:

<input type="checkbox"/> 1	Individual/Institutional subscription	@ £22.95	Total £	<input type="text" value="22.95"/>
----------------------------	---------------------------------------	----------	---------	------------------------------------

Plus

<input type="checkbox"/>	Reduced rate subscriptions additional to the full rate subscription	@ £10.95	Total £	<input type="text"/>
--------------------------	---	----------	---------	----------------------

I enclose a cheque made payable to Economics Today Ltd for £ or a School/College order (Institutions wishing to be invoiced must enclose a purchase order) or please charge to my credit/debit card. (American Express is not accepted.)

My card number is:

3 Digit Security Number on back of card: Expiry date:

Name (on card):

(Please give statement address if different from that shown below)

Please send to:

Name: _____

Address: _____

Postcode: _____

Daytime telephone number: _____

Please send this form to:

Economics Today Ltd., Stocksfield Hall, Stocksfield, Northumberland, NE43 7TN.

Tel: (01661) 844000 Fax: (01661) 844111

Email: orders@anforme.co.uk Web: www.anforme.com

et

Welcome to the new Economics Today
magazine

ECONOMICS TODAY

Helping students engage with Economics... a magazine that is accessible and relevant.

As a teacher, I have made sure my pupils subscribe to the excellent Anforme publication, Economics Today.

Ray Powell
Former Chief Examiner, AQA

- ▶ Up to 12 articles and shorter features in each issue.
- ▶ 2 AS / Year 1 Level Data Questions and Answers in each issue written by highly experienced examiners.
- ▶ Our Roving Economist will be looking at the Economics behind topics such as Corporation Tax: Should it go up or down?
- ▶ 2 Year 2 articles plus 1 crossover article that links AS / Year 1 and Year 2 in each issue.
- ▶ Everyday Economics: A feature written just before publication which will explain the economic significance of a major topic in the news.
- ▶ The Unbalanced Economist: A new feature by Ruth Corderoy which takes a one-sided look at a controversial topic.
- ▶ Lots of devices sprinkled throughout to aid learning and understanding such as Remember this; Try this; Highlighted definitions; Examiner's Tips.
- ▶ AS / Year 1 and Year 2 articles are timed to coincide with the teaching year.
- ▶ Articles flagged to show which Board and Unit they are relevant to.
- ▶ Plus, 2 free ebooks valued at £2.98 each for each subscriber to download to computer, iPad or Kindle.
- ▶ Plus, online and interactive resources available exclusively for subscribers.
- ▶ A number of highly experienced examiners are contributing to our big 44 full-colour pages in each issue.

... for more details of the features and articles to appear in Volume 25, see inside...

The essential magazine for 'A' Level Economics

AS / Year 1 Data Questions and Answers

Each issue will contain 2 data questions and answers. Our authors include former Chair of Examiners Brian Ellis, Sarah Hopkin and Quintin Brewer.

The questions will be covering issues including: Supply and demand and the cocoa market; Fly tipping and externalities; CAP and Brexit and how it will affect UK farmers; pollution, diesel cars and tax rates; and, boom, fall and recovery: the story of North Sea oil.

Crossover article

One article in each issue is designed to cover elements of both the AS / Year 1 and Year 2 syllabuses. Articles include:

- ▶ The need for more housing and the relaxation of planning controls.
- ▶ Why is GNP a poor measure of wellbeing?
- ▶ Growth in developed and developing countries.
- ▶ What is the role of the World Trade Organisation?

Year 2 articles

Two articles in each issue including:

- ▶ Inflation and interest rates:
Has the MPC got it right?
- ▶ The labour market: how will the use of robots impact on jobs?
- ▶ Greece: Will a new bailout work?
- ▶ The slow rate of productivity growth in the UK:
Do we need an industrial strategy?

Regular features

In this feature Chief Examiner Robert Nutter will provide a short extension to each main article to challenge and equip students who wish to go a little bit deeper.

In this feature, Peter Cramp, Head of Economics, Nottingham High School, will examine contemporary topics including: Should the number of fast food outlets be limited?; The changing energy mix; and, How is the US performing under a new president.

City Economists will present their own view of the Economy. Our authors include Neil MacKinnon, Global Macro Strategist, VTB Capital and Dr George Buckley, Chief UK Economist, Nomura Bank.

In this feature, Chief Examiner Robert Nutter will be setting and answering six multiple choice questions, three for AS / Year 1 and three for Year 2.

In this new feature Ruth Corderoy will be taking a one-sided look at a controversial topic. The first two will be on Brexit and the National Health Service.

Allan Hodge will be examining topics including: Could Scotland go it alone?; Is the eurozone in trouble?; and, Are price comparison websites really helpful to consumers.

Ruth Tarrant will be taking a look at issues including: Corporation Tax: Should it go up or down; Is the tax on sugary drinks going to work as intended?; and, Stamp duty and the housing market.

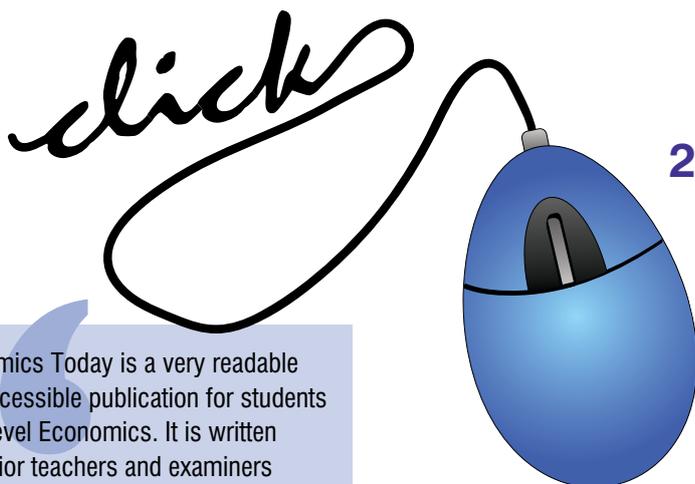

Everyday Economics: In this feature Steve Earley will be drawing out the Economics behind an up-to-date news item.

Digital, online and interactive

- ▶ Powerpoint presentations which will help teachers access articles for class use.
- ▶ Multiple choice questions and answers will be interactive and online.
- ▶ Crosswords and quizzes on selected articles.
- ▶ Weblinks from all relevant articles including all Taking it Further pieces, helping students to do further guided research.
- ▶ Additional articles from top Examiners.
- ▶ Further information and analysis from our team of contributors.

Economics Today is edited by former Chief Examiner Peter Maunder.

2 FREE ebooks for iPad, Kindle or computer

Two 18 page ebooks will be provided completely free with voucher codes given in the magazine to enable subscribers to download the books from our website. You can choose whether to download them to your computer, iPad or Kindle.

Economics Today is a very readable and accessible publication for students of A Level Economics. It is written by senior teachers and examiners who know how the subject should be presented to A Level students.

Colin G. Bamford
Former Chief Examiner, OCR

The ebook "The World Economy: The good, the bad and the ugly, will have an access code printed in the September issue and the code for "The UK and the International Economy 2018" will be given in the March issue, to help with exam revision.